A Complex Weave: Women and Identity in Contemporary Art

Opening Reception: February 23 at 5:00 pm

A Complex Weave brings together the work of sixteen artists across the spectrums of age, race ethnicity, religion, cultural influences, and artistic medium. The one characteristic that is common to all the artists is gender; all are women. Yet despite their diversity, the works of these artists display a surprising commonality of expression and themes. Among other themes, the exhibition confronts the expectation of artists as male. Women artists are...
